NEW YORK, May 20.—Shipping resumed their leading position at the opening of today's stock market, at the announcement of the new offer for it. British tonnage imparting further strength to Mercantile Marine issues. American International which has direct marine affiliations, also strengthened. Noteworthy gains otherwise were confined to Mexican Petroleum, Royal Dutch, Central Leather, General Motors, Reading, St. Louis and Union Pacific, the latter being demanded in expectation of the early publication of its annual report. United States Steel and related share were moderately irregular.

Trading during the morning was more cautious than in any recent period. The selling of the first hour caused leading rails, steels and equities to react 1 to 2 points under yesterday's final prices, while shipping yielded much or all of their gains. Later the list hardened on fresh buying of high grade oils, Industrial Alcohol and several of the more speculative rails, Texas and Pacific indicating further accumulations. Exchange on principal allied centers continued to weaken, but international issues were firm to strong.

Issue of the president's message strengthened the market at midday. Improvement was more pronounced in speculative issues, however, than in standard shares. American Maltin food products and Industrial Alcohol made subsequent gains on the proposed partial repeal of war time prohibition.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, May 20.—Corn display new strength today, influenced by continued wet weather and by dwindling receipts. Only forty cars of corn arrived in Chicago this morning. Sellers were scarce. Opening prices which ranged from $\frac{1}{2}$ to $1\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ higher with July $1\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to $1\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ and September $1\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to $1\frac{1}{2}$ ¢, were followed by decided further upturns.

Oats sympathized with the corn advance. After opening $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ to $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ higher, including July at 67¢, the market reacted a little but then ascended well above initial top figures.

Provisions were dull and easier. Lower quotations on hogs had a depressing effect.

SOUNDS SO.

"Say, Jim, what air these So-government they're talkin' about much now?"

"I don't know, Bill, but I guess they're kinder Ament corners."

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, May 20.—Corn displayed new strength today, influenced by continued wet weather and by dwindling receipts. Only forty cars of corn arrived in Chicago this morning. The prices were scarce. Opening prices which ranged from $\frac{1}{2}$ to $1\frac{1}{2}$ cents higher, with July $\$1.62$ to $\$1.62\frac{1}{2}$, and September $\$1.56\frac{1}{2}$ to 1.57 , were followed by decided further upturns.

Oats sympathized with the corn advance. After opening $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ higher, including July at $67c$, the market reacted a little but then ascended well above initial top figures.

Provisions were dull and easy. Lower quotations on hogs had a depressing effect.
